Deep end swimming is subject to an individual swim test

Swim Test

- Swim 25 yards freestyle (face in the water) or backstroke without stopping or grabbing the lane line.
- Before they reach the wall the child must tread water for 1 minute.
- Perform a front float and back float
- If the child does not swim with their face in the water they must jump into the pool and fully submerge.

What happens if a child fails the swim test?

If the child fails the swim test they must remain in the shallow end of the pool with a parent. If the child is 13yrs or older and fails the swim test they may remain in the shallow end of the pool without an adult.

Boy Scout Rentals

Boy Scout Troops may use the pool free of charge for merit badges. If there are more than 15 Boy Scouts/troop leaders swimming there will be a $10 per hour charge. This is to accommodate for the additional lifeguard needed. All Boy Scout troops wishing to use the pool must schedule in advance with the aquatics director.
